ANNUAL REPORT, 1995

Project HIP-HOP and the Civil Rights Movement

“When we arrived at the Lorraine Motel, I did not expect that the faint stain of Dr. Martin Luther King’s blood on the balcony would touch my heart the way it did. I wasn’t aware how many people were involved in the Movement, and how many gave their lives for us. I know I have a lot to learn, but that won’t stop me from going into schools and really speaking up. I talk to my friends about the trip, and even that’s a step in the right direction.”
